

2010 SUMMER CAMP

Master Kim's Taekwondo Institute offers a fun summer program for children. Children of grade school age will participate in various activities. An exciting and distinct taekwondo class will be offered each day of the week. Weekly field trips with limo bus service will be fun as well as educational. Crafts, coloring and drawing time will be offered daily. Friday pizza parties and movies are always a hit. All children will participate in our Summer Character Reward Program. Each day children will earn points for demonstrating good character then at the end of the week are able to redeem prizes for points. Let your children do something fun this summer with the instructors you trust.
